We hope that this book will capture the thrills, the heartbreaks, and the frustrations that a student experiences during the formative high school years. We, the editors of this years Marsengold, have tried to include an insight to the true life happenings of the students during these all-important years.

We would not possibly depict all the trials and tribulations of each person, but we do hope that this Marsengold will help you to recapture the events of high school. So, in the years to come, when you flip through these pages, we ask you to think of the laughter, friendships and good times of your high school days.

We Came . . .

September 1980, the class of '84 took its first step into Sharon High School, the threshold of adult life. Do you remember that first day? . . .

"Let's walk down the 200's and check out the seniors . . ." When I get out of the elevator, do I take a right or a left to get to the pool? . . . "Do I have to say, 'It's okay' when I go to the lav? . . .

Can you ever forget? . . .
 . . . having to bring all your books with you, until they got dumped . . . carrying senior's trays . . .
 getting your first detention . . . looking forward to leaving . . .

seniors 84

We Saw . . .

. . . a sophomore class, together, working with its advisor . . . our slogan, "OUT THE DOOR IN '84" . . . The beginning of the "Guy reign" . . . looking for goals . . .

Can you ever forget? . . .
 . . . selling magazines and making money . . .
 allowing our lockers to hold our books so we don't have to . . . beginning to look for jobs
 . . . looking forward to leaving . . .

We see ourselves during junior year . . . working toward our goals . . . a new advisor . . . class spirit prevails at the Valentine Day Dance . . . considering colleges, careers . . .

. . . planning the prom . . . bands, photographers, places, favors, food, and most importantly, dates . . . "What do I wear?" . . . "What kind of corsage do I get?" . . .

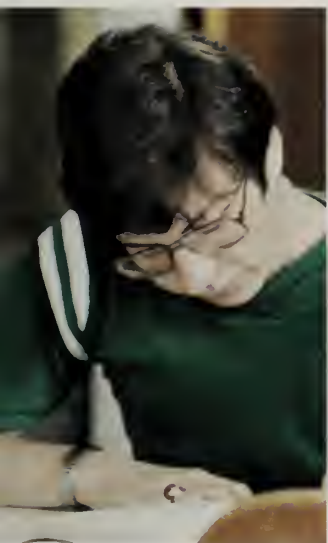

UPDATE: "Shelter rocks the Sheraton, while Martin Rich takes pictures of couples and their cups" . . . a night to remember . . .

Can you ever forget? . . .
. . . taking PSAT's, SAT's, achievements?
. . . college propaganda bombarding us . . .
going to our last class day . . . the imminence of becoming seniors . . . looking forward to leaving . . .

We Conquered

SENIORS!!! . . . we finally made it . . . we rule the school . . . the yearbook is ours . . . the Sharon High Times has class of '84 editors . . . the eye opener and candy store are our domain now . . . senior spirit prevails . . .

Deciding our futures . . . college bound? . . . which schools? . . . "Can I get in?" . . . "Will I get in?" . . . April 15 . . . Thin envelopes; REJECTION . . . thick ones; anticipation; sigh; ACCEPTANCE!!! . . . decisions . . . decisions . . . decisions

... senior fever sets in ... parties ... parties
... and more parties ... homework? What's that? ... "books? They're in my locker!" ...
"freshmen carry my books" ... HOW IRONIC ... Things sure have changed ...

Could you ever forget? ...
... going to our senior prom ... dancing at our class night ... spending time with friends
... looking forward to leaving ...

"We came, we saw, we conquered" . . .

seniors 84

Graduation

... caps and gowns ... tears and roses ...
smiles and hugs ... CONGRATULATIONS! ...
thank you's ... pasts to remember ... futures to live for ... "the further back you can look,
the further forward you are likely to see" ...

could you ever forget? ...
... the good times ... the good friends ...
and the goodbyes ... keeping the special memories ... receiving your diploma ... and wishing we didn't have to leave ...

Alie Long

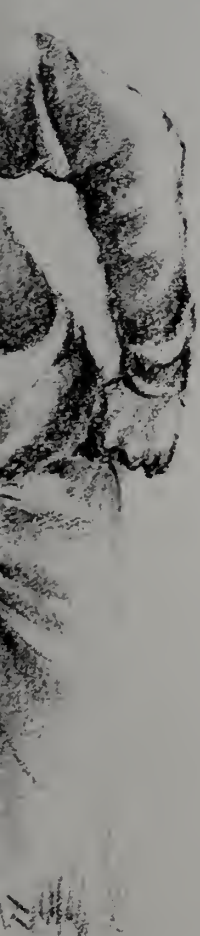

But leave, we must. "While often the recollection of time and space may fade from the mind; the memory of those who have shared in your life endures forever."

Our future is an open door. And once again we are standing at its threshold. Now we see that "it is not so much where we stand, but in what direction we are moving." No matter where we come to, we can look behind us and see that we, the class of 1984, have conquered Sharon High School, but have yet to conquer our lives . . .

. . . "If our friendship depends on things like space and time, then when we finally overcome space and time, we've destroyed our own brotherhood. But, overcome space and all we have left is here; overcome time, and all we have left is now. And in the middle of here and now, don't you think that we might see each other once or twice?"

DEDICATION

As we look back at our high school years, there is a group of people who guided us, befriended us and most of all taught us. Not only did they teach us academics, which will help us in our careers, but they also taught us about ourselves, which will help to enrich our lives. So it is with gratitude, pride, and reverence that we dedicate the 1984 Marsengold to the faculty of Sharon High School.

APPRECIATION

The class of 1984 would like to thank our advisor who helped us create this yearbook. For all the work, time, and support he gave to us, we extend our appreciation to Mr. Frank Bryant, yearbook advisor. Without his efforts we could not have created a yearbook which is a true representation of the fine school we have found Sharon High to be during our school years.

senior class day

Even though there were no rays to catch at Horseneck Beach, the clouds did not darken our class spirit. Everyone shared in the fun and enthusiasm remained high as we packed up and left for Lincoln Park to make the day complete.

homecoming

The snap of fall was in the air and on the field, as the Eagles faced the Panthers. The cold weather and lack of a Sharon victory failed to put a chill on this 1983 Homecoming. A great deal of work went into the floats with the spectacular efforts of the Juniors winning the day. Presiding over this excellent display of school spirit was Homecoming Queen, Marianne Smith, her escort Eric Greenidge, and her court.

tennis

The 1983 Boys Tennis Team had a very successful season. Although the preseason pundits prophesized a second place finish at best, the Eagles went 13-3 and were Tri-Champions of the Hockomock League, along with Foxboro and Stoughton. The team also faired well in tournament play as they advanced to the quarter-finals of the State Tournament.

The Eagles led by captains Michael Clayman, Paul Newman and Chris Tietleman along with returning letter men Glynn Lloyd, Marc Schwab, Craig Gainsboro and Andy Goloboy are ready for the challenge of the 1984 season.

Under the seasoned coaching of Basil Cronin, and the aggressive playing of Captain Kathy Outlaw the girls team completed its 1983 season with a winning record of 8-7. The 1984 team looks forward to surpassing the 83 record and with strong senior players like Captain Deanne Waitze and Stephanie Gould spurring the team on, this may well be accomplished.

The softball team is looking forward to another successful season in 1984. With returning seniors Lori Leven, Tracey Minichello, Linda Shectman and Tracy Waterman to bolster the teams strength and a hard working and determined underclass squad the team has a good crack at achieving its goal. These factors coupled with Mr. Regan seasoned coaching give the team more than a good chance at realizing their goal.

The Spring Track Team had a very good season. The girl's were led by Captain Sharon O'Brien and ended up with a 6-2 record, losing only to Foxboro and to Canton. The girl's also defeated their rivals, North Attleboro, a team which hadn't lost a meet in 5 years. After a slow start, the boy's finished with a 6-2 record. Both teams placed third in the Hockomock League Championship Meet. Several team members performed exceptionally well. Lee Inbar set a record for the girl's shot put and Steve Flaherty set one for the boy's javeline.

Under the enthusiastic coaching of Joel Peckham, the varsity baseball team terminated its 1983 season with an 11-9 record. By winning the last 5 games the Eagles entered the 1984 season with a positive attitude. Senior sensations Larry Lyman and David Belle proved that they can compete with the best. Lyman ended the 1983 season with a 8-2 record and an ERA of 1.20, while Belle finished with an average near 390. Dave Feldman, Jeff Cohen, and Craig Herson made important contributions to the 1983 season and will play a big part in '84.

With Larry Frank, Larry Bornstein, Paul Steinberg, Paul Shaffer, and Jason Binns all back for another year, the Eagles will have great speed and a devastating defense. All looks well for 1984.

Every field hockey game of the 1983 season was full of action and excitement. All of the team worked very hard and there was incredible team spirit. Seniors Dawn Fitzhugh, Karen Sinman, and Tracy Waterman demonstrated enthusiastic leadership. Although it was the last year for these seniors the underclassmen can look forward to many additional victories under the skillful coaching of Miss Decas and Miss Makela.

This years team was under the direction of new coach John Scanlan and led by senior tri-captains Craig Herson, Kevin Gertsman and Eric Kupperstein. Despite the team's record there was a lot of excitement and enthusiasm. A strong contribution was made by seniors Larry Lyman, Dave MacCaffrey and Greg Reid. Last year's gymnastic's team had a very successful year. They became the Co-Champions of the Hockomock League with Canton High. Hopefully this year the girls will win the league. The team did very well in So-Sectionals which were held at Quincy High School. They came into the meet seated 6th and came out of the meet placing 2nd to Braintree. Their major goal this year is to win So-Sectionals and break Braintrees record of winning every year. Coach Karen McSweeny has done a terrific job and they are lucky to have her. This year should be their best ever.

The weather was perfect and the only thing dropping from the sky was a parachutist. He joined a wide variety of people including jugglers, magicians and soldiers engaged in down to earth demonstrations. There was plenty of fabulous French and Spanish food served in authentic surroundings. Over eating may have contributed to the defeat of the faculty in a spirited volleyball game with the students. A day to remember.

halloween dress up day

Once again the seniors had the most spirit but the Freshmen had the numbers. But winners or losers, the school full of ghost, goblins, monsters and "who-knows-whats" got together and had a good time!

thanksgiving pep rally

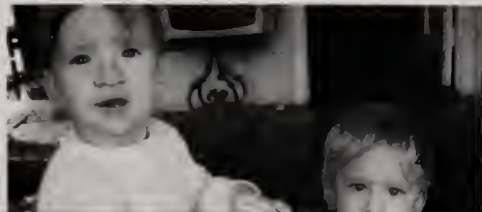

There was a smile on Tim Sullivan's face and pie on Doc Blanchon's. There was plenty of spirit in the cheer leaders routines and posters and banners everywhere. And if spirit could have set the tigers on their tail, the Juniors had it.

Our Town is the story of a small New England town in the early 20th century. The message it bears is eternal. Under the skillful direction of Carlyle Newton and the dedication of the cast and crew, it proved to be a rewarding production.

Kevin Tyler was the omniscient narrator; and Robin Nabi and Josh Eisenthal brought poignancy to the roles of the star-crossed lovers.

*To the class of '84 with admiration:
The memories we share are irreplaceable.
The guidance you've provided is indispensable.
The friendships we've formed are meaningful.
The rivalry between us is trivial.
The three years we shared here were special.
The luck we wish you is everlasting.
We'll miss you!
With love and Best Wishes.*

In Memoriam — Sheryl Weiner

When we remember Sheryl, we think of her in her overalls, smiling, talking, laughing. She was that kind of person . . . happy, friendly, outgoing. We shared many talks, a few tears and so much love together. Our memories of her will never fade, and her smile will linger in a special place within our hearts forever.
